Title of Project:
Subtitle if Necessary

Your Name
University of California,
Santa Barbara
Introduction

• General topic
• Background Information in bulleted form
• Stay short and concise with your bullets
• Your bullets should summarize what you say in your script
A Brief Review of the Literature

• Author
  – Argument

• Author
  – Argument

• Author
  – Argument
Research Question(s)

• State research question (write it out on the slide—this is probably the only thing that will be verbatim from your script)

• How your research contributes to the literature you just outlined
Research Methods

• Method
• Sample?
• Anything pertinent about how you went about getting your data
Findings/Discussion

• Finding 1
  – Describe
  – Why is it significant?

• Finding 2
  – Describe
  – Why is it significant?

• Finding 3
  – Describe
  – Why is it significant?
  (may put each finding onto a separate slide)
Conclusions

• What is the big takeaway from your research?
• How does it contribute to the research on the general topic?
• What are some directions for future research?
• Were there any limitations to the study?
References

• 3-4 key references you used in your presentation or would like to direct interested audience members to Acknowledgements

- Faculty mentor
- Your research team?
- McNair?